

GETTING TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER

York Singles Club - Prospective New Member Questionnaire 2017 - 2018

We don't mean to be intrusive...after all you don't know any of us yet, but our membership support team want to ensure your experience with us is rewarding and fulfils your goals in joining the club. Information you share below is considered confidential and not for the general membership.

About you: (please print) Your name:

_____ (M)_____ (F)_____

Home Phone:_____ Cell Phone_____ email _____

First...a couple of personal questions (optional of course) It helps for us to know how long you have been single. We often find that members who are newly single are in a different "head space" from those who have been on their own for a very long time....different needs, different comfort zones. Ditto for those who are new in our community. We offer to mentor. It isn't an easy time for most.

I've been on my own for _____ I'm new to my present community _____-

Other comments you may want to share?

To choose events you would enjoy it would help us to learn what your interests might be. Circle those that might be appealing to you. Hiking Crafts Theatre Dancing Sporting Events Euchre Golf Travel Music House Parties Bridge Camping Skiing Movies Lunch 'n Learn Dining Out

Other ideas (What's on your bucket list?) _____

How do you believe you could best contribute to the club? In each member's time with us they find a way to contribute something of themselves...in some way at some time. It could be experience, skills, perhaps party set up or take down if asked, being contact for a dinner out or a play for example. Every member can do something, large or small. We are all volunteers. We make it happen!

Skills you feel you may be able to share: (circle) bookkeeping travel planning computer website party planning food preparation purchasing party decorating organization newsletter driving administration Anything else? _____

Some events take place in members' homes. Consider whether you might be willing at some point to consider hosting a club event at your residence (or condo party room) at your convenience? Possibly No Future Perhaps Sometimes it is most convenient for us to carpool. Perhaps you might be willing to take turns driving your vehicle on occasion? Yes Unlikely Possibly Depends on how far Depends on whether it's night time Not sure...maybe. Don't drive. I'm New here...still learning my way.
